Air Cargo Conference 2026

HOME FOR ALL

AIR CARGO CONFERENCE

SPEAKER

Top international and regional speakers will talk about current topics in air freight, logistics, management and innovation.

EXHIBITOR

We have the ideal framework conditions in a special local atmosphere. Exhibitors can present their products and services, make contacts, make themselves known in the industry or simply cultivate their image.

COMMUNITY

Our members take center stage. At the AIR CARGO CONFERENCE, you can take advantage of all the benefits as a sponsor, exhibitor and participant while presenting yourself to external trade visitors or exchanging ideas with industry experts.

SPONSORS

Possibility to increase your visibility through various packages for every company size, including regional providers

ATTENDEES

Familiar atmosphere, perfect connections, short distances, especially for the community. A special feature: The option of using an app to get in touch with all delegates.

INNOVATION AWARD 2026

AIR CARGO
CONFERENCE

As part of the 11th Air Cargo Conference on September 2-3, 2026, HAUS61 is excited to host the Startup INNOVATION AWARD 2026.

In a live pitch, selected startups will present their ideas and compete against one another. A jury of experts from Lufthansa Cargo, HAUS61, and other industry leaders will select the most compelling pitch.

The pitches and award will be presented on September 2nd live on the conference's Main Stage, in front of an audience of leading decision-makers from the logistics and air cargo industry. A unique opportunity for startups to showcase their vision.

If you are, or you know, a startup that wants to get involved, message us at jessica@haus61.com!

HAUS61.COM

HAUS61, an international startup accelerator based at Frankfurt Airport, is developing the platform behind the award and brings together founders, entrepreneurs, experts, and industry leaders in one place.
